KIWANIS YOUTH IN ACTION

Paint in Action began 25 years ago when Kiwanian member Al Svarnavares reported a group of youth who wanted to help the community. They sought to paint buildings, build playgrounds, and perform garden services for homes in need. Al knew a fellow parishioner who needed her house painted. He contacted a local artist, a local painter, and found Kiwanian member, who also had a volunteer group friendship and both to the volunteer event. This led to the formation of the group called Kiwanis Paint in Action, which has since grown to include volunteer groups throughout the county. Today, Kiwanis Paint in Action has grown to harbor over 200 volunteers and 150 homes annually. The cost to attend the event is $50. For more information, call 772-785-2485.

2018 Kiwanis Youth in Action won the Indian River County Environmental Award.

HOW CAN YOU HELP?

The event takes place at a local school, community center, or other facility that is in need of funds for this important community project. Kiwanis Paint in Action has enjoyed experiences at local schools, community centers, and non-profit organizations. We have provided funding, labor, and materials, and repair work on homes, playgrounds, and buildings. For more information, please contact us.
